

Notre Dame Machine Crushes Cornhuskers Under 16 to 7 Score at Lincoln

NEBRASKA BOWS BEFORE POWERFUL IRISH ATTACK

Notre Dame Comes From Behind in Second Quarter and Outfights Heavier Opponents—Gipp, Brandy, Kiley and Shaw Star.

Special to The News-Times.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 16.—While Nebraska's Cornhuskers battled valiantly against the inevitable result Coach Rockne's well balanced Notre Dame football machine swept away a five point handicap in today's game and rolled up a 16 to 7 victory over the Huskers, their second in as many seasons.

It was a hotly contested conflict during the first half but Rockne's athletes, though outwitted, were down the Nebraska defense and were continually on the aggressive during the third and fourth quarters. Only untimely penalties and the superb fight of the Huskers kept the Irish from piling up a higher score. Two touchdowns by Gipp and Castner were ruled out because of off side play by both teams.

The fight of the Notre Dame line against the heavier Nebraska forwards was the outstanding feature of a game replete with brilliant runs and dashing defensive play. Smith, Shaw and Capt. Coughlin played a superb defensive game. It was Shaw who broke through and blocked the Nebraska punt which resulted in a safety for Notre Dame.

In the backfield George Gipp stood his ground and annihilated above the field. He not only scored eight of the Notre Dame points but his passing to Kiley, E. Anderson and Barry paved the way for the Notre Dame victory. Brandy beside handling the Irish machine perfectly cut through center for one yard and the first Notre Dame touchdown. Gipp kicked both for the experts to keep him off a unanimous All-American.

Gipp threw the crowd into pandemonium at the opening of the third quarter when he broke through the Nebraska line for a 55 yard run to touchdown. The play was called back however, and Notre Dame penalized five yards for off side play.

First Quarter

Nebraska kicked off to Notre Dame's goal line and a rapid exchange of punts followed Gipp and Weller holding the teams to almost even scores in midfield. A penalty and a 45 yard pass by Gipp gave Nebraska a 15 yard line where Duke broke away for 15 yards. Notre Dame held and Weller punted 38 yards.

With the ball in mid-field Gipp broke away in a 35 yard run which took the ball to Nebraska's 13 yard line. Gipp plowed through for seven yards and Castner went over for a touchdown but was called back and Notre Dame penalized five yards.

The Cornhuskers took the ball on their own three yard line. Weller attempted to punt from behind his own goal and Shaw broke through blocking the ball and downing Weller who recovered. Score: Notre Dame 2; Nebraska 7.

Third Quarter

Another exchange of punts opened this quarter. Superb defensive work by Kiley held Nebraska when the Cornhuskers threatened Notre Dame territory. With the ball in mid-field Brandy passed to Gipp and the halfback took the ball to the 21 yard line where Duke broke away for 15 yards only to be called back. Nebraska took the ball and after failing to gain, Duke tried a place kick from the 45 yard line but failed.

Coughlin substituted for Gipp and celebrated his appearance in the game by running 35 yards around the end. Castner punted and Newmann returned it 16 yards. Mohardt punted 25 and Coughlin returned two more. Mohardt broke through the Nebraska line for 25 yards. Coaster's attempt at a long drop kick failed and the quarter ended with the ball in mid-field. Score: Notre Dame 9; Nebraska 7.

Second Quarter

A series of punts in mid-field resulted in the ball going to Nebraska when Gipp's punt went straight up and Nebraska recovered on Notre Dame's 34 yard line. Line plunges and a pass, Newman to Swanson, netted 31 yards. Hubka carried the ball through the line after three trials. Day kicked goal.

Castner returned Munn's kick off to Notre Dame's 25 yard line. Nebraska was penalized 20 yards for roughness. Wynne went in for Castner and carried the ball for 10 yards to the 17 yard line on his first play. Nebraska held for downs and took the ball on its 21 yard line. Weller pointed 45 but two sensational passes, Gipp to Capt. Coughlin for 27 yards and Gipp to Kiley for eight yards returned the ball deep to Nebraska territory. Nebraska held and kicked but Notre Dame carried the ball to the 34 yard line. Ed Anderson for a total of 57 yards. Mohardt failed to gain and Gipp again passed to Anderson for eight yards. With the ball on the two yard line Brandy went over for the first Notre Dame touchdown. Score: Notre Dame 9; Nebraska 7.

Fourth Quarter

Rockne sent Gipp and Barry back

LED NOTRE DAME'S ATTACK AT LINCOLN

GEORGE GIPP.

OHIO STATE WINS FROM PURDUE 17-0

Buckeyes Open Conference Season by Blanking Boiler-makers.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 16.—Ohio State won its first western conference game of the season here this afternoon, defeating Purdue university 17 to 0. The Buckeyes solved the much vaunted "Boilermakers' shift in the first period and led by a clever 15 yard pass, crossed Purdue's goal two minutes before the period ended. Ohio State's other touchdown in the fourth quarter was preceded by an aerial attack that carried the Buckeyes to the two yard line where Weaver bucked over.

Purdue at times fought the Buckeyes to a standstill but lacked the necessary punch to climax their efforts. Score by periods: Ohio State 7 0 3 7—17 Purdue 0 0 0 0—0 Lineup and summary: Ohio State Position Purdue Myers Bendixen Huffman (Capt.) Birn (Capt.) Left end Left tackle Taylor Cooley Left guard Nemeck Stanwood Center Swank Trott Right guard Spiers Claypool Right tackle Slicker Garmen Right end H. Workman Don Field Quarterback Stinchcomb Watson Left halfback Henderson Wagner Right halfback C. A. Taylor Meeker Fullback Touchdowns—Ohio State—Workman, Weaver. Goals from placement—Stinchcomb, Workman. Substitutes—Weaver for Taylor. Official scorers—Referee, Hackett, West Point. Umpire, Leon Gardner, Cornell. Head linesman, Henry, Kenyon. Time of periods 15 minutes.

at the opening of this period and again substituted Wynne for Castner. Wynne immediately broke through for 28 yards and followed up by hitting center for four. Gipp attempted a drop kick but the ball went wild. Hubka and Wright made first down through the Notre Dame line carrying the ball to the 34 yard line. Hubka again passed to Anderson for eight yards. With the ball on the two yard line Brandy went over for the next play for a touchdown. He kicked on his own goal. Notre Dame 16; Nebraska 7.

Rockne rushed a group of substitutes into the game and the team began to play with fire for the remainder of the quarter. The Notre Dame line holding for downs and gaining possession of the ball in mid-field just as time was called.

Score by periods: Notre Dame 2 7 0 7—16 Nebraska 0 7 0 0—7 Line-up summary: Nebraska (7) Notre Dame (16) Swanson Kiley Left End (Capt.) Coughlin Pucelli Left Tackle W. Munn H. Anderson Left Guard Day (Capt.) Larson Center M. Munn Smith Right Guard Weller Shaw Right Tackle Scherer E. Anderson Right End Newman Brandy Quarterback Hartley Gipp Left Halfback Wright Barry Right Halfback Dale Fullback Substitutions: Notre Dame—Hayes for Kiley, Garvey for Capt. Coughlin, McHie for Larson, DeGree for Smith, Voss for Shaw, Prokup for E. Anderson, Grant for Brandy, D. Coughlin for Gipp, Mohardt for Barry, Wynne for Castner.

Nebraska—Hubka for Hartley, Nowmar for Wright, Scheppel for H. Anderson, Kiley for Brandy.

Nebraska scoring: Touchdown—Hubka; goal from touchdown—Day.

Notre Dame scoring: Touchdowns—Brandy, Gipp; goals from touchdown, Gipp 2; safety—Weller. Officials: Referee—A. G. Reed. University of Michigan. Umpire—DeAnderson. Vice Captain—Gus Graham, University of Michigan. Head linesman and time keeper—Jay Wyatt, University of Missouri. Time of periods 15 minutes.

Lineup and summary: Minnesota Position Indiana Eckberg Bell Left end Frazer Risley Left tackle Atwood France Left guard Clement Pierce Center Enke Right guard Teberg Mumby Right tackle Gruye Leonard Right end Arnston (Capt.) Mathys Left halfback Regnier Minton (Capt.) Larson Williams Right halfback Ruben Kyle Fullback Scores by periods: Minnesota 7 0 0 6—7 Indiana 7 7 1 0—21 Minnesota scoring: Touchdown—Arnston; Goal from touchdown—Eckberg. Indiana scoring: Touchdowns—Minton, 2; Williams. Goals from touchdowns—Risley, 2. Officials: Referee, Masker, Northwestern. Umpire, Ray, Northwestern. Head linesman, Ray, Iowa. Time of periods 15 minutes each.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;

the first score of two points brought a demonstration while the Nebraska

touchdown met absolute silence for a moment until a big cheer went up for "Eddie."

The spectators played a second fiddle to the game on the wires and "time out" was called every time.

Cheerleader Slaggett picked up his megaphone.

Cheer the Plays.

To the gyrations of the seven juggling cheerleaders, the crowd

saw the big game through every play.

They went wild at the first touchdown and groaned when the ball was returned for a penalty;